FCCFA 2026 ANNUAL CONVENTION & TRADE SHOW

— Navigating New Horizons —

July 23 – 25, 2026
JW Marriott Miami Turnberry Resort & Spa

Navigating New Horizons

On behalf of the Florida Cemetery, Cremation and Funeral Association, it is my pleasure to invite you to attend the 2026 FCCFA Annual Convention & Trade Show. The convention will take place July 23-26, 2026 at the JW Marriott Turnberry in Aventura (Miami), Florida.

The theme for this year's Convention is "Navigating New Horizons". We will join in the beautiful coastal setting of Miami and explore new and evolving trends and technologies to advance in our profession. You may notice an underlying theme

"women in leadership" at this year's convention, as we hear from Carriage's Robbie Pape, Dr. Heather Walsh-Haney, who leads Florida Gulf Coast University's anatomical donation program, the attorney we all know and respect, Wendy Wiener, and an inspiring presentation from former fighter pilot Loree Draude. We will also have the privilege of hearing from Foresight CEO Chris Cruger as he presents the latest Consumer Study and our outstanding partners at Ged Lawyers with Legal News You Can Use.

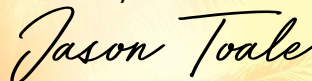

Thursday, July 23, FCCFA will host the 2026 Vicki Uselton Memorial Golf Tournament to benefit Wolfhounds Legacy. Wolfhounds Legacy is a 501 (c) (3) whose mission is to "save two lives at a time, so no hero walks alone". They rescue, rehabilitate, pair and train veterans and first responders with their dogs. The dogs become certified through Wolfhounds Legacy as a service animal for the benefit of the veterans with PTSD and their individual needs. It will be a fun event and a worthwhile cause. The Convention will get kicked off that evening with a Welcome Reception and will continue with an outstanding lineup of speakers delivering thought-provoking and educational sessions. We will conclude on Saturday evening with our annual reception and Celebration of Remembrance and banquet dinner including recognition awards and installation of our Board of Directors and Officers.

Make plans to visit the great showcase of products and services at the convention and support our supplier members. Networking receptions will take place in the trade show hall during lunch on Friday and breakfast on Saturday, allowing extra time to visit the showcase of exhibits.

Thank you to the Annual Convention Committee Chair, John Guelde, and his convention committee for their time and efforts planning this event. We look forward to an outstanding convention and know you will have a fantastic time in Miami!

Sincerely,

FCCFA President

A certified public accountant, Past-President of the ICCFA, and accomplished speaker on leadership topics including Executive Presence and The Power of Choice, Robbie is uniquely positioned to explore how women have evolved from support roles to operational leadership, ownership, and cultural influence in funeral service. This session goes beyond policy and promotion – it's about personal agency, presence, and recognizing the choices we all have in how we show up, lead, and shape the future of care and business performance.

Dr. Heather Walsh-Haney, Professor and Department Chair of Justice Studies at Florida Gulf Coast University, brings over two decades of forensic anthropology expertise to this session. Drawing on her work consulting on more than 2,000 cases and her disaster response experience following 9/11, Hurricane Katrina, and the Surfside building collapse, Dr. Walsh-Haney will explore the FGCU Human Identity and Trauma Analysis (HITA) Anatomical Gift Donation Program and its collaborative partnerships with funeral directors, cremation professionals, and medical examiners across Florida. This session examines how anatomical donation supports education and professional training, and how interdisciplinary partnerships strengthen service to families and communities.

Chris Cruger, CEO, Foresight

As the leader of a premier consulting firm dedicated to the profession, Chris has spent seven years conducting in-depth research into consumer attitudes and behaviors – expanding that work over the past four years to include the perspective of funeral and cemetery professionals. This session draws on those findings to explore the growing disconnect between consumer expectations and how many businesses operate today, equipping attendees with practical strategies to bridge the perception gap, adapt their business models, and position their organizations for long-term success in an evolving marketplace.

SOAR: Overcome Fear and Reach New Heights

Loree Draude

From earning 300 carrier landings as one of the first women in combat aviation – including 99 at night – to leading global teams at Google and Meta, Loree brings hard-won wisdom from the cockpit and the boardroom. Now a Harvard Advanced Leadership Initiative Fellow and executive coach, she draws on decades of experience navigating high-stakes challenges to help audiences find clarity, embrace failure, and rise stronger.

In this session, Loree shares a simple aviation framework for managing life's challenges and demonstrates why normalizing setbacks builds stronger leaders and teams. She'll guide you through identifying what matters most and how to optimize both your personal and professional life. Whether you're navigating uncertainty, leading through change, or simply ready to stop playing it safe – Loree will show you how to embrace fear rather than fight it, and soar.

11:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

The Attorney Is In

Wendy Wiener, Managing Member, WRW Legal

In this session, Wendy will discuss issues on which she is frequently consulted in her Florida deathcare industry practice. As regulatory counsel for the FCCFA, she will field your questions and provide guidance on the matters directly relevant to your regulatory well-being.
